

Inaugural Sandra Edwards Colloquium
Department of Occupational Therapy
Saturday, February 18, 2017
Agenda

9:00 – 9:30: Welcome

Dr. Sherrilene Classen, Professor and Chair of the Department of Occupational Therapy

Message from the Dean

Dean Mike Perri, PhD

9:30 – 11:10: Keynote: Disability Attributed to Cognitive Impairments: Fixed or Flexible?

Elizabeth R. Skidmore, PhD, OTR/L, FAOTA

11:20 – 12:00 Concurrent Sessions

Targeting and Managing Behavioral Symptoms in Veterans with Dementia: A Randomized Trial of a Nonpharmacological Intervention

Linda Struckmeyer, PhD., OTR/L, Sandra Winter, PhD., OTR/L and Paul Arthur, PhD., OTR/L

The Science, Practice and Future of Driving Rehabilitation

Sherrilene Classen, PhD, OTR/L, FAOTA, FGSA

12:00 – 12:40 Lunch Break

12:50 – 1:40 Concurrent Sessions

Life Care Planning: A Road Map for Managing the Rehabilitation Needs of Individuals Disabilities Life Care Planning

Jamie Pomeranz, PhD, CRC, CLCP

Supporting College Students with Learning Disabilities: The Person, Environment and Salient-Tasks

Consuelo Kreider, PhD., OTR/L

1:45 – 2:35 Concurrent Sessions

The Role of OT in Stroke Caregiver Readiness Assessments to Decrease Re-hospitalizations

Emily Pugh, MS, OTR/L, LHRM and Mary Ellen Young, PhD

Occupational Therapists' Perceptions of Online Competence Assessment and Evidence-based Resources

Christine T. Myers, PhD., OTR/L

2:45 – 3:30 Speaker Panel Discussion: Sherrilene Classen, PhD, MPH, OTR/L, FAOTA, FGSA

3:30 – 4:30 Reception for Participants and Speakers